

Disclaimer
This Telecommuting Agreement does not create an employment contract between the employee and the University of South Carolina and should not be interpreted as creating a contract of employment, either expressed or implied. This document does not create any contractual rights or entitlements. The university reserves the right to revise the content of this document, in whole or in part. No promises or assurances, whether written or oral, which are contrary to or inconsistent with the terms of this paragraph create any contract of employment. This agreement may be terminated by the university at any time. Once the agreement is signed it may not be terminated by the employee without consent of the university.

Safety Checklist
My offsite workspace has adequate lighting, ventilation and is reasonably quiet and free from distractions. It is a comfortable workspace where it is easy to concentrate on work.
My offsite workspace is maintained in a safe condition, free from hazards and other dangers to the employee and the university's equipment.
I have the necessary software and required office equipment with sufficient and safe (grounded) electrical outlets in the offsite work space. All electrical equipment is free of any hazards and is connected to a surge protector as necessary.
I will back up data on a university server on a regular basis to ensure the university has such records.
I will protect confidential information and keep such information in a secure place (lock and key) when I am not working.

IT Security Certification
I certify that I have/will contact the IT security liaison for my organizational unit to ensure compliance with the SecureRemote Access Guidelines before I can begin telecommuting.
Employee Signature and Notice of Intent to Collect Private Information
I understand it is my responsibility to maintain the safety and appropriate arrangement of my offsite workspace if it is my home. I certify that my responses to the checklist are true and completed to the best of my knowledge. I understand any erroneous, misleading, or fraudulent information is sufficient grounds for my preclusion from telecommuting. Further, I acknowledge that I must provide the address of my telecommuting location and any contact information for that location, including home phone and/or personal cell phone. If such information changes, I have an affirmative duty to inform my supervisor of the updated telecommuting address and phone number before the move. Failure to provide this information initially and after any change will result in me being unable to telecommute. This contact information may be shared with human resources, executive leadership, agency safety staff, agency supervisors, and any other agency or state employee with a business need to access this information.
Telecommuting Special Conditions and Additional Agreements
I agree that I am responsible for attending all required meetings, unless my supervisor approves otherwise.
I agree to be available and accessible during the telecommuting scheduled hours for customers, co-workers, and supervisors/managers. Regardless of my telecommuting arrangement, I can be required to report to the office location at any time with or without advance notice.
I understand that all personal activities, including child and dependent care, pet care, housework, yardwork, personal errands, etc., should be done only during established break times, lunch time and before and after work hours. I understand and agree that I am prohibited from providing dependent care (either to a child or an adult) while working at the alternate work location.
I understand that telecommuting agreements are not transferable from one position to another, and this agreement is valid only for my position at the time the agreement is signed.
I agree to return all university equipment, supplies, material documents and/or other property immediately upon request, termination of participation in the telecommuting program and/or termination of employment.
I understand that working hours cannot coincide or overlap with any other type of employment.
I agree to inform my manager or supervisor any time there is an actual or suspected security issue that arises during my work at an alternate workplace.
I understand that the university is not liable for any damages to my personal or real property while I am performing official duties at my alternate workplace.
I agree that I will not conduct any face-to-face University business at my telework location.
I agree to immediately report to my manager or supervisor any work-related injuries that occur while in the telecommuting arrangement.
I agree to provide certificates of my homeowners' or renters' insurance and to submit any renewal or changes as needed, if requested.
I agree that it is my responsibility to ensure compliance with any local zoning ordinances related to working at home or maintaining a home office.
I agree that any tax implications of telecommuting entirely my responsibility as the telecommuter. Telecommuters are encouraged to seek professional advice in this area.
